A GREAT TRIANGULAR MATCH.

Jockey Harry Jones Gets a Hurt Pronounced Fatal.

A more outrageous or high-handed piece o business than the imprisonment of 10,000 peo-ple at the Brooklyn Jockey Club track yesterday, by order of President Philip J. Dwyer, cannot be imagined. The scenes and incidents which happened because of this arbitrary order are fully described in another column of THE EVENING WORLD, but pen and type are unable o express the feelings of these citizens who were thus uplawfully deprived of their liberty. There is no law, written or unwritten, which gave President Dwyer the authority to issue uch an order, and there is no authority at the rooklyn Jockey Club which can prevent a man leaving the track. Matters are being carried too far. President Dwysr has a right, no doubt, to prevent pool-tooms from getting information if he can; but te has no right to drag the patrons of the track nto his fight and deprive them of their liberty.

The meeting between Kingston, Tenny and Prince Roysi should attract an energious crowd o the Gravesend track.
